---

CONFIDENTIALITY OF PATIENT INFORMATION. Your records, and other information about you, are confidential. This information will not be released, unless you authorize release in writing, or unless compelled by law.

COURTEOUS TREATMENT. You will receive courteous treatment free from verbal, physical, or sexual abuse by the practitioner.

INFORMATION ABOUT ASSESSMENT AND RECOMMENDED SERVICE. You have a right to current and complete information concerning my assessment and recommended service, including an estimate of the duration of treatment and services to be provided.

ACCESS TO CLIENT RECORDS. You are allowed access to your personal records and other personal written information.

CHANGE PRACTITIONER. You have the right to choose freely among available practitioners and to change practitioners after services have begun.

COORDINATED TRANSFER. If you change practitioners, you have the right to my assistance in coordinating this transfer to another practitioner.

REFUSING SERVICES. You have the right to refuse services or treatment.

NO RETALIATION. You may assert your rights without retaliation.

CHANGE IN SERVICES OR CHARGES. You have a right to reasonable notice of changes in services or charges and to expect that I will provide prior notice of any changes.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to ask.
